

Amendments to the Claims:

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listings, of claims in the application:

Claims:

~~All of the objects claimed ought to be made from materials that are not unpleasant to hold in the mouth and are not hazardous to the health.~~

1. (Currently Amended) A Chewing-bag ~~with as characteristic features that it is about 3 by 4 cm big and made out of textile~~ and having an opening on one side, for enabling chewing of a herbal material, the textile: ~~of the smaller sides. The textile is~~ being not unpleasant to hold in the mouth, ~~it is~~ being strong enough to chew on, ~~the structure of the cloth~~

having a structure that holds back the pulp of the herbal material but lets through the liquid and the dissolved substances released therefrom. ~~If used normally it should not be a hazard to the health.~~

~~The bag can have a thickening near the opening to prevent a fastener from slipping off while used normally. As thickening a bit of string could be used and tacked through the cloth.~~

2.-9. (Cancelled)